Teaching Passion & Calling

What you teach matters—but why you teach it matters more.

1. What subject(s) or areas do you feel called or drawn to teach?
2. Why are you passionate about this subject?
What sparked that passion, and why has it stayed with you?
3. How do you believe this subject helps shape students—not just academically, but personally or spiritually?
4. If students remembered only one thing from your class years later, what would you hope it would be?

5. Tell us about a moment—inside or outside a classroom—when you realized, “This is why I want to teach.”

Teaching & Learning Experience

(Formal or informal—both matter.)

1. Where have you taught or worked with children before?
(Schools, co-ops, churches, tutoring, homeschool, camps, etc.)
 2. What age groups have you worked with?
 3. How would you describe your teaching style in your own words?

Work History & Accountability

We don't expect a perfect past. We do expect honesty and ownership.

1. Have you ever been fired, asked to resign, or let go from a job?
☐ Yes ☐ No
 2. If yes, please explain what happened and what you learned from the experience.
 3. How do you typically respond when you realize you've made a mistake?

Background & Child Safety

1. Are you willing to complete a Level 2 background check as a condition of employment?
☐ Yes ☐ No

2. Have you ever been convicted of a crime (felony or misdemeanor)?
☐ Yes ☐ No
(A “yes” does not automatically disqualify you.)
 3. If yes, please explain the nature of the offense, the date, and what you learned or how you have grown since.
(Honesty is required. Omission or dishonesty is grounds for disqualification.)

Faith & Beliefs

Kaleo is a Christian school. We want to understand your faith authentically—not impressively.
